

A Language of Co-existence	Principles of secularity and religion	The Impact of Global Power Structures on the options for dialogue
Create a media for co-existence	Secularism/religion are not antithetical	Settle new power structures
Create a language of self-reflection	Ensure Freedom of religion	Overcome the 'security agenda'
Create a visionary language	Manage religious affairs with fairness	Handle global power vacuum
Create public spaces for co-existence	Separate nationality and religion	Avoid double standards
Make 'good news' interesting	Accept multiculturalism	Empower the powerless
Honour presence of several perceptions	Ensure a constructive religiousness	Equal minority rights
Create a common language of hope	Ensure judiciary independence	Distribute legitimacy
Create joint accept of key concepts	Create trust and understanding	Monopolize human rights
Secure a free and responsible press	Balance authenticity and pluralism	Overcome western claim to hegemony
	Overcome ethnocentricity

Semi Final
1. Empower the powerless
2. Ensure Freedom of religion
3. Create public spaces for co-existence
4. Ensure judiciary independence
5. Secularism/religion are not antithetical
6. Overcome the 'security agenda'
7. Honour presence of several perceptions
8. Avoid double standards
9. Create trust and understanding
10. Overcome ethnocentricity

The five main challenges to future co-existence
1. Empower the powerless
2. Ensure Freedom of religion
3. Create public spaces for co-existence
4. Ensure judiciary independence
5. Overcome the 'security agenda'